Hello, little helper!

You can color, draw, find, count, and play with Click.

This book belongs to:

Choose a favorite page and begin. A grown-up can read the directions with you. You can do the pages in any order.

MAKE IT YOURS

Use pencils, crayons, or your imagination.

TAKE YOUR TIME

You do not have to finish every page at once.

A LITTLE HELP IS WELCOME

Some puzzles are easier with a friend.

For grown-ups: US Letter, 8½ × 11 inches. The activity pages work in black and white. Print at actual size or fit to page. Answers are on pages 19–21. Coloring and drawing pages have no single right answer.

A place to belong

Color Click, June, and Pip. Add something welcoming to the porch.

Find the matching things

Count with Click

Count the pictures in each row. Write the number in the empty box.

How many eggs?

How many pots?

How many flowers?

How many slippers?

A very quiet friend

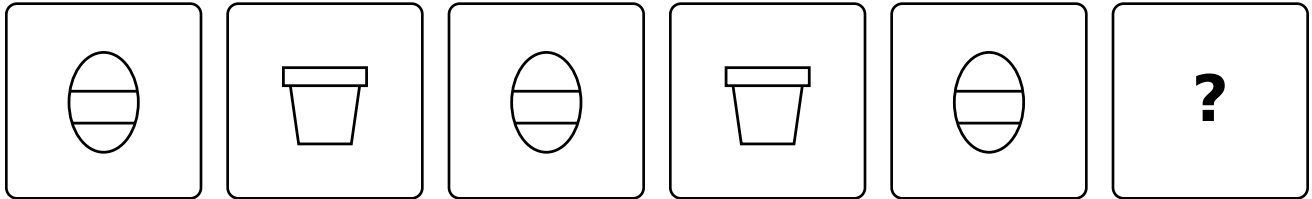

Color Click and the little nutcracker. Decorate the stocking.

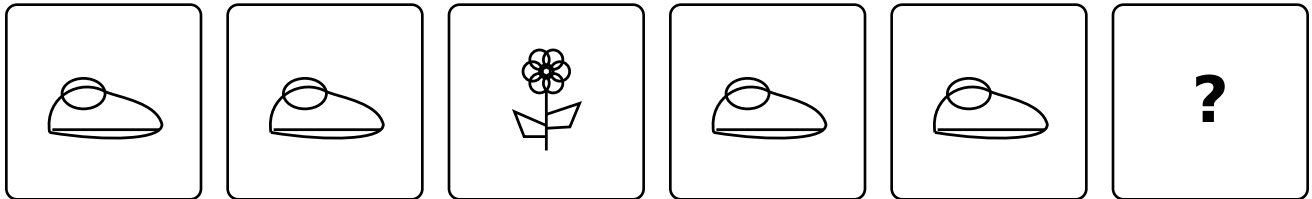

What comes next?

Look for the repeating pattern. Draw the next picture in the last box.

A flower, dot by dot

Connect 1 to 20, then join 20 back to 1. Add a stem and leaves. Color your flower.

What might grow beside your flower?

How does a seed grow?

Write 1, 2, and 3 in the boxes to put these pictures in order.

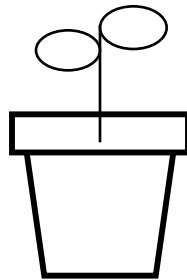

A

Water gently

B

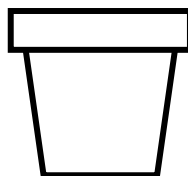

See a little shoot

C

Plant the seeds

Spot 6 changes

Compare the two garden shelves. Circle the six changes in either picture.

Look at the plants, the can, the packet, and the gloves.

Design Click's cardigan

Add patterns and pocket details. Make it a cardigan only Click would wear.

What would Click keep in a pocket?

Little things can grow

Color Click and Mrs. Alvarez. Add another plant to the garden.

Answers: garden games

The flower can have any stem and leaves you like.

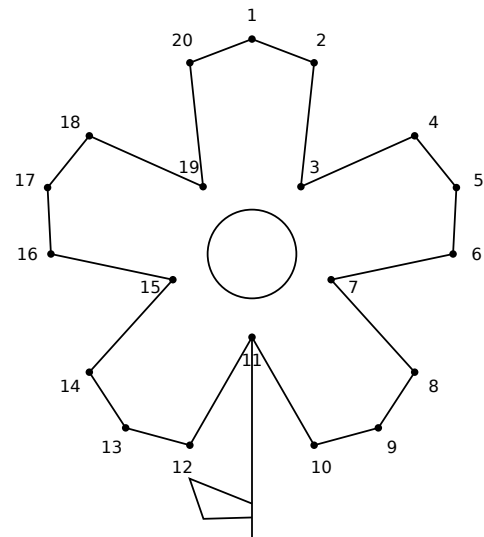

Page 13 • The six changes in B

1. The flowerpot's stripe is gone.
2. There is an extra flower.
3. The watering-can handle is missing.
4. The tall plant has one fewer leaf.
5. The seed packet has a star instead of a dot.
6. One gardening glove is missing.
